Description :

PDF-a3a58 | From Leonardo's drawings of grotesque heads to contemporary prints lampooning American politicians, The Metropolitan Museum of Art has a vast but largely unknown collection of caricatures and other satirical works. This handsome book offers 165 examples, dating from about 1500 to the present, that reflect the age-old tradition of using exaggeration and humor to convey personal, social, or politi... Infinite Jest: Caricature and Satire from Leonardo to Levine (Metropolitan Museum of Art)
