Description :

PDF-4843d | When The Museum of Modern Art first opened its doors on November 8, 1929--in less than 5,000 square feet of rented office space in midtown Manhattan--it was considered a radical experiment. Who would have thought that a museum devoted entirely to “outrageous” Modern art could be successful? But succeed it did, weathering both the stock-market crash of 1929 just a week later and a storm of cont... The Museum of Modern Art Book of Cartoons
